Description

Harris Hill Independent Schools recruitment service has extensive experience working with international schools securing excellent teachers at both prep and senior level. Our aim is to work as an extension to your school, maintaining the highest quality of service at all stages of the recruitment. Our approach is bespoke, by taking the time to understanding our client's particular needs, we can adapt our service to individual requirements.

Our service is both personalised and comprehensive; we dedicate ourselves to finding and securing the best candidate for you to ensure a lasting appointment. We believe that our success in terms of the calibre of our candidates and the contribution they make to the school is attributable to our proactive partnership approach with our clients.
