Description

Working with an 'Appropriate Body' to run an NQT induction period in British Schools Overseas (BSOs) Changes in the law in September 2012 allowed schools that follow a British curriculum abroad, to recruit NQTs and support them through their induction year. Teachers working overseas who have not previously been able to obtain QTS are now able to achieve this via induction with The Buckinghamshire Learning Trust. The Buckinghamshire Learning Trust is BSME's preferred partner to act as an "Appropriate Body" for NQT induction to BSME Schools Buckinghamshire Learning Trust is pleased to be have agreed with BSME preferential rates for NQT's inducted in BSME Schools. BLT can also provide in country training for NQT Mentors as well as an extensive range of consultancy and training services tailored to customer need.
